Several members of the Pharmacy Alumni Association Council (PAAC) at Southwestern Oklahoma State University recently met on the Weatherford campus to prepare for upcoming events involving the PAAC.

The PAAC promotes the interests and welfare of the SWOSU College of Pharmacy and the Pharmacy Alumni Association by providing a direct communication link between the College of Pharmacy and its alumni.

In addition to the SWOSU Homecoming Pharmacy Open House on Saturday, October 27, from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m., the SWOSU Pharmacy Alumni Association will host a free come-and-go pharmacy alumni reception on October 6 from 5-7 p.m. at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Tulsa (3332 S. 79th East Avenue) and in Oklahoma City on November 3 at Charleston's Restaurant (2000 S. Meridian Avenue).

"These events are great opportunities for our pharmacy alumni and friends to reminisce about the past, celebrate the accomplishments, and partner in the future endeavors of the SWOSU College of Pharmacy," said SWOSU Pharmacy Alumni Director Patti Harper.

Members of the PAAC are: Janet Seratte, Cache, president and chair of the Recent Graduates Committee; Tracie Simard, Yukon, president-elect; Jennifer Shaffer Barbee, Yukon, chair of the Membership Committee; Colby Brewster, Elk City; Jill Copus, Edmond; Lisa Dodson, Altus; Diane Feightner, Enid; Fred Galer, Inez, KY; Dorothy Gourley, Ardmore; Genny Holman, Cordell; Amber and Chad Jones, Chelsea; Patricia Platt, Clinton; Steve Pray, Weatherford; David Ralph, Weatherford; Nancy and Kelly Selby, Denton, TX; David Warden, Norman; and Sheldon Webb, Oklahoma City.
